Determine the missing number of degrees to the nearest tenth for each equation.

Just write a number without a degree symbol in each box.