

Incorrect. You can set up a right triangle and give the side adjacent to angle  $A$  length 2 and the hypotenuse length 5. Then  $2^2 + o^2 = 5^2$ . Solve this equation to find the length of the opposite side to angle  $A$ , then use the definitions of the trigonometric functions.