Incorrect. One way to set up a correct equation is to use the definition of sine.

$$\sin 35° = \frac{o}{h}$$

Use a calculator for the value on the left and the triangle for the ratio on the right. Solve the equation for r and round off to the nearest hundredth.