

The angle 30° is shown below in standard position, together with a unit circle.

Use the coordinates of the point of intersection of the terminal side and the circle to match the trigonometric functions on the left with their values on the right. Some answer options on the right will not be used.