

On the interval $[-2\pi, 2\pi]$, the graph of sine has the following pattern: hill, valley, hill, valley. The function attains its maximum value of 1 at the two points on top of the two hills. These points occur where $\theta = -\frac{3\pi}{2}$ and $\theta = \frac{\pi}{2}$.