

This is the minimum value of θ on the interval. The minimum value of the function is -1 . To put this another way, the least output of the function, or value of $\sin \theta$, is -1 . The question was asking for the inputs, or values of θ , that yield this output.