

These are the highest and lowest points on the graph of  $y = \sin \theta$  in the interval  $\left[-\frac{\pi}{2}, \frac{3\pi}{2}\right]$ . The graph of cosine has a hill and valley pattern like sine, but the hills and valleys are not located in the same places.