

This function and the graphed function both have 4 as the amplitude. However, they have different periods. Perhaps you thought that  $\frac{\pi}{5}$  was the period of the graphed function, but it is actually  $\frac{2\pi}{5}$ . The correct answer is  $y = 4 \cdot \cos 5x$ .