

The number line below represents the amount of dollars that someone has. Represent the following scenario on the number line:

Amy is at the fair and wants to go on a ride that costs $3. Amy can afford to pay for the ride. Use the number line to indicate the amount of money that Amy could have.