

The sum of Sharon's and John's ages is 70. Sharon is 4 times as old as John.

If you let s = Sharon's age and j = John's age, then the problem can be represented by a system of equations. Which of the following shows a graph of this system and the solution to this problem?