

A photograph has a length that is 2 inches longer than its width, x . So its area is given by the expression $x(x + 2)$ square inches. If the area of the photograph is 48 square inches, what is the width of the photograph?

The width of the photograph is _____ inches.