Use completing the square to solve the equation $x^2 - 12x = 14$. First determine the number you must add to both sides of the equation.