

For this to be the graph of the system, the equations of both lines have to be represented. While the line \square does go through the point $(5, 2)$, is this entire line shown on the graph? What other points would be on that line?