Correct. The intersection of the two lines is at the point (1, 6). This means that both equations are true when □ and □.