

Correct. Since the equations have the same slope but different  $y$ -intercepts, they are parallel and have no solution.