

Which of the following can be solved by using a system of equations?