

Correct. The difference between the guess (g) and the actual age (28) needs to be less than or equal to 3 for the owner to win. Since the guess could be greater than or less than 28, use the absolute value symbol around the difference.