

Incorrect. Remember that the absolute value of the difference between the guess (g) and the age (28) needs to be less than or equal to 3. How can you translate that relationship into a mathematical inequality/ sentence?