

Correct. The difference between the guess (g) and the actual age (23) needs to be greater than 3 for the owner to lose. Since the guess could be greater than or less than 23, use the absolute value symbol around the difference.