

Correct. The difference between the guess ( $g$ ) and the actual weight (172) needs to be less than 7 for the owner to win, meaning that the difference must be greater than or equal to 7 for Mike to win a prize. Map both boundary points on the number line and draw lines extending towards positive and negative infinity.