Correct. The difference between the guess (g) and the actual height (66) needs to be less than or equal to 2 for the owner to win. Map both boundary points on the number line and draw a line between them.