Incorrect. To use the substitution method, solve the top equation for C by subtracting $2D$ from both sides, to get $C = 4.35 - 2D$. Now substitute this expression for C in the bottom equation. Your new equation is $2(4.35 - 2D) + 3D = 7.45$. Can you solve this equation for D?