

Incorrect. Rearrange both equations into standard form. Multiply the top equation by 5 and the bottom equation by -3, and then add the equations. This will eliminate the y variable. Solve for x .