

Incorrect. Isolating the variable requires performing the inverse of each operation in the correct order. The inverse of  $+20$  is  $-20$ , so you need to subtract 20. This results in  $5h$ . The inverse of multiplying by 5 is dividing by 5, which gives you  $h$  by itself. So the correct method is to subtract 20, and then divide by 5.