

Read the problem below:

"A chemist needs 40 liters of 20% acid solution. She has containers of 10% solution and 25% solution. How many liters of each should she combine to get the needed solution?"

What is the rate in this problem?