

A landscape architect is designing a new walkway that cuts diagonally through a public park. To figure out the length of the walkway by using the Pythagorean Theorem, which measurements does he need?

