Incorrect. Simplify so that the radical is on one side of the equation. Continue to simplify to get an equation of the form $\sqrt[3]{x-1} = $ a number, then cube both sides of the equation to get rid of the radical.