

Incorrect. You can find the distance between the points (1, 3) and (5, 2) by inserting the values for x and y into the formula: $\sqrt{(x_1 - x_2)^2 + (y_1 - y_2)^2} = \sqrt{(1 - 5)^2 + (3 - 2)^2}$. Now that you know what is under the radical, can you find the distance?