

Incorrect. In the right triangle, you are given $a = 9$ and $c = 15$. Use the variable b to represent the missing length. What does the Pythagorean Theorem say about the relationship between a , b , and c ? Use that relationship to solve for b .