

Correct. By applying the Distributive Property, you successfully matched each set of polynomials with its corresponding product.