Incorrect. Because the exponent on the outside of the parentheses is 3, you must multiply $\frac{1}{3} \cdot \frac{1}{3} \cdot \frac{1}{3}$. Remember that you must also multiply the exponents within the parentheses by the exponent on the outside of the parentheses.