The parabola on the graph opens downward and has its vertex at the origin. This is not the correct equation because it has a positive exponent, and therefore would result in a parabola that opens upward.