

6 is the lowest common denominator of 2 and 3 so you can multiply both sides of the equation by this number to clear away the fractions.