

The domain will exclude values for which the value of the denominator is 0. Factoring the denominator $x^2 - x - 2$ as $(x + 1)(x - 2)$, you found that the value of the denominator will be 0 when $x = -1$ and when $x = 2$. These values are excluded from the domain.