

There are values for x that should be excluded from the domain. Factor the trinomial and find values for x that make the factors equal 0.