

Although the slope of the line and the direction of the parabola are correct, neither equation has a y -intercept that matches the corresponding functions represented on the graph.