

Incorrect. For each pair, identify the lowest common multiple of the coefficients and then the lowest common multiple of the variable terms. For example, the lowest common multiple of  $3x$  and  $5x$  is  $15x$ , because the LCM of 3 and 5 is 15, and the LCM of  $x$  and  $x$  is  $x$ .