

A student wants to solve a rational equation by multiplying the entire equation by a common denominator. He is solving this problem:

$$\frac{3}{x+3} = \frac{9x}{12}$$

If he correctly multiplies by a common denominator, what could his equation look like?