Incorrect. In order for the table to represent the equation, each y value in a row must equal 1 less than twice the corresponding x value.