

Use the table to find the area (in square units) of rectangles with different lengths and widths. (Make sure to use commas correctly in your answers.)