

Read the problem carefully. You are being asked to find the area of a rectangle. Note that not all of the information in the problem may be needed for your answer.