A bathtub is being filled with water by two faucets. One faucet can fill the bath 1.5 times faster than the other faucet. If both faucets are open, the tub can be filled in 9 minutes. If the bath was emptied and then only the faster faucet was turned on, how long would it take to refill the bath?