An auto assembly plant has two machines that install the steering wheels on new cars. One machine takes 2.5 hours to install 20 steering wheels, and the other machine can install 10 each hour. If both machines are working at those rates, how long will it take for 250 steering wheels to be installed?

Pick the equation below that best represents this situation.