

Incorrect. Remember that the category of rational numbers includes all numbers that can be expressed as a ratio of integers (that is, a fraction), and that the natural numbers begin with 1.