Incorrect. There are 2 routes Joseph can take from home to the park and there are 3 routes he can take from the park to school. How does the Fundamental Counting Principle apply to determining the total number of routes from Joseph's home to school?