If all sections are equal, what is the probability that the spinner does not point to a multiple of 2?