

Nora is studying mathematical patterns, and she makes the following conjecture:

$$\frac{2x}{x} = 2$$

Thinking about possible counterexamples, decide if her conjecture is always, sometimes, or never true.