

Correct. This conjecture is true for values of a and b where $a > -2b$. Each of the other suggested conditions allows some values for which $a + b \leq -b$.