

The 7 substitute players on the basketball team were trying to decide in what order they should sit on the bench during the game. In how many different ways can they arrange themselves from left (next to the coach) to right (at the end of the bench)?