

Incorrect. First, use the Fundamental Counting Principle to compute the number of ways to pick 2 different colors in order. Next, divide by the number of ways to arrange the two colors (since order doesn't matter).